Sr. Bonspiel, Continued

It was decided that a deposit for 80 people be given to the caterer for the house party (we can always increase the number). There will be at least 64 curlers attending.

Shirley read a draft of her letter to the teams and the booklet that each team will receive for any ideas that the board might have. During a discussion of name tags, Jinny Hill offered to check with Paul Mort about obtaining the small apples that he had at the Douglas which we could use with the tags. It was suggested that different color tags be used for participating teams and for workers; the card in the plastic shells could be used.

Empire State Bonspiel: Jinny Hill had received a call from the host club, Schnectady, reminding us to bring the plaques and the pins.

Respectfully submitted,

Molly Babcock

TO: Nadja McKay - Ardwick's
FROM: Helena Crowley - Candlewicks
SUBJECT: CANDLEWICKS 1990-91

April 1, 1991

During the 1990-91 curling season, the Candlewicks had an active membership of 23 ladies curling on Thursday evenings. In the first half of the season, we consistently filled two sheets of ice, but during the second half, it became a struggle to do so due to the competition from the competitive curling league and from out-of-town bonspiels.

Competitively, we took part in the All American (won by Sandy Buchanan, Skip, with Helena Crowley, Takane Aizeki, and Mary Saul and the Wells Wicks competition (won by Shirley Bruce, Skip, with Helena Crowley, Marcia Case, and Katie Gohd ). We also competed in the Three Brooms, curling against Nutmeg at Ardsley.

The outlook for the 1991-92 season looks promising with several prospective new members being recruited to offset possible losses through relocation and romance.

The new Ardwick's pin was well received with a total of 35 pins being sold.

ARDWICK BOARD MEETING
April 1, 1990

Next Meeting - Tuesday May 1 - 10AM
at Jinny Hills -

Present: Babcock, Bruce, Conner, Garrison, Hanlon, Hill, Kenny,
Meszaros, Mudge, Patterson, Smith

Co-President Bruce opened the meeting, held in the Ladies Locker Room of the Ardsley Country Club, at 11:00 am. The minutes of the meeting of February 1 were accepted, with one correction: the date of the Three Brooms was March 1, not March 2.

The treasurer's report was accepted, subject to audit in June. Our accounts are now at the Astoria Federal Bank, using the Hasting Branch; both Marion Cowles and Jan Conner can sign checks.

Old Business

Home Sports

Jinny Hill will announce this year's results at the Luncheon to follow. The policy that team members have to have played in at least one half of the games to be eligible for an award continues, as had in the past in both of the clubs.

Bonspiels

Marcella Hanlon announced that this year we covered four of the eight bonspiels we were invited to attend. Hopefully we can do better next year, especially by covering the Albany spiel. She suggested that we opt for the first Three Brooms (in December) next year, when the Club is open. Kathy Mudge will check with Andy Ketteridge to see who to contact in Nutmeg.

Rules: Marita Smith had no report.

Marcella Hanlon suggested an ammendment be made to the Constitution & Bylaws which would make the outgoing President automatically the Chairman of the Nominating Committee. This will be investigated by Marita.

Skips Rep: The skips will not use sign-up sheets for the Three Brooms, but they will coordinate the teams hoping to field more competitive rinks. They decided against electing new skips this year. They will be making an award for the most improved first and second year curlers. Bobbie Patterson will be next year's Skip's Rep.

Prizes: Doris Garrison will try to order the Clark pins, but make arrangements to pay for them as delivered, four a year.

USWCA: Marcella Hanlon will have to have a ball park figure for Jo Owens about how may will want to curl against the Scots on Jan. 29 in the afternoon, and Jan 31 morning or afternoon (1991). She also asked for and received permission from the Board for our Co-Presidents Bobbie Patterson and Shirley Bruce to write supporting letters for Peggy Rotton's nomination to be the second Vice President of the USWCA.

Hospitality: Heather Kenny and Jan Conner were thanked for their excellent work this year.

Publicity: Jean MacIntosh was out of town. Marcella Hanlon suggested a news letter be put together and sent to our associates who have been so supportive - this includes excurlers from both clubs.

Ardwick Pins: Shirley Bruce reported on the price quote from Sandi Buchanan's mother for the newly designed ARDWICK pins. The consensus was for the 1 1/4 " pin and that we should have a sample sent to us before putting an order in, which would be a large one. Shirley, Marcella Hanlon and Carol Meszaros were entrusted to check the sample which will arrive during the summer months. If ok, and ordered then, we should have the pins by October, in plenty of time for our curling season.

Senior Bonspiel: Shirley Bruce agreed to chair the event, with the promise of full support from every member of the Ardwick. Jinny Hill will --ASAP-- contact the Dinner Theater about reservations for our group.

New Business

Shirley Bruce brought up the condition of the Ladies Room in the Curling Club and received agreement from the board that it was a disgrace. The Board of the Curling Club will be asked to help, we will put up $100 toward tile and indoor/outdoor carpeting and get to work and redo it.

Clean-up day, for the kitchen area and behind the curtain, was set for Wednesday, April 10 at 10 am.

The Board meeting was adjourned at 12:30 and the members joined the rest of the Ardwick at the closing luncheon.

Respectfully submitted
Molly Babcock, Secretary

Arwicks Board Meeting

Prizes: Marcella Hanlon reported for Carol Meszaros that the WW runner's up pins cannot be engraved; the 1st place pins have been engraved 1990-91. The Crossed Broom pins, which Jinny got from Schenectady for the Clan, are very nice. Hopefully we can get more. Carol has some Sr. Bonspiel pins left; it was suggested they be given to Sandi Buchanan and Cindy Boss who worked so hard for the Bonspiel, and to Anne Dudley.

(Shirley Bruce suggested that for a Past President Pin possibly a bar could be made to hang from our Ardwick pin.

Hospitality: Bobbie Patterson reported that she and Jinny had cleaned the refrigerator. April 16 was set as clean-up day for the club house and a sign-up sheet will be passed at the closing meeting.

Publicity: Jean Glus had put together a great scrapbook of pictures of the year's activities.

Nominating Committee: Shirley Bruce submitted the committee's report, which had been duly posted:

Treasurer, for a two year term - Jean Glus

Secretary, for a two year term - Marion Cowles

2nd VP, for one year only filling out an unexpired term - Shirley Bruce

USWCA: Marcella Hanlon had no report.

Skips Rep: Bobbi Paatterson will hold a meeting today to elect a Skips Rep.

Candlewicks: Helena Crowley reported that they had 23 active curlers the 1st half of the year; bonspiels and competitive curling cut their ranks during the 2nd half. They took part in the AA, WW and Three Brooms. They expect new members next year, but are sad to be losing some: Margaret Murdock and Takane Alzeki are both moving.

(New Business: Jinny Hill showed three samples of name tags which would incorporate our pin. The Board chose one and suggested it be shown today at the meeting so members could order them in time for next season.

(She also suggested it was time for us to think about a curling sweater for the Ardwick.

The meeting was adjourned in time for the luncheon before the general closing meeting.

ARDWICK BOARD MEETING
MAY 1, 1990

Present: Babcock, Bruce, Conner, Glus, Hanlon, Hill, McKay, Meszaros, Mudge, Patterson, Smith.

President Hill opened the meeting, which was held in her home, at 10:00 am.

The minutes of the previous meeting had been mailed to all board members previously and were accepted with the correction of the spelling of "Clarke". It was suggested that during the curling season the minutes be posted on the bulletin board so that the all members of the Ardwick's could keep abreast of our activities.

The treasurer's report was accepted as presented.

Mrs. Hill announced her board members for the coming year.

Old Business

Jinny Hill and Shirley Bruce have almost finished distributing the awards for last year's curling events.

Jinny did not bring up our request for help in renovating the ladies room at the last Curling Club Board Meeting, but will do so at the meeting next month.

The Ardwick pin sample is expected in July for inspection. The cost to us will be about $1.26 per pin.

Mrs. Smith presented an ammendment to the by-laws to change the chairmanship of the nominating committee to ensure that it be the outgoing president of the Ardwick's. Since our President serves a two year term and the nominating committee changes yearly, this will have to be re-worked.

Meszaros Bruce
This year the skips have already elected Shirley Bruce and Bobbie Patterson to the Nominating Committee, Carol Meszaros is automatically a member being last year's chairman. The board suggested several names to ~~Jinny Hill~~ as possible members to be appointed by the board: Margaret Murdock, Betty Steineman, ~~Marion Cowles~~, Betty Fletcher.

Shirley Bruce announced that Irene Baker of Glens Falls, one of our associates, had died this spring.

Kathy Mudge reported that she had left several messages but had not been able to contact Andy Ketteredge re the Three Brooms. She will keep trying, or try Jo or Jill Owens. She doesn't feel that she needs any help with the Three Brooms.

Jan Conner will get the books to Jean Glus for auditing in June.

Jinny Hill asked if other board members had problems with the first Tuesday of the month for meetings (Jean MacIntosh has a conflict). Several members preferred the meeting to be held on a curling day during the season.

Committee Reports

Sports Committee: Nadja McKay had no report but wished input about next years plans. Discussion centered around which events should be permanent ones, with medals to be awarded every year. We already have 22 silver Wells Wicks medals on hand so we will try to have them made up in gold tone for first place and continue that important event. Jinny Hill will check what dies Wayne Silver Smith may have, from either the Wicks or Ardsley Clubs, which we can use. With this information, and what Carol Meszaros can obtain we can better decide on our program.

Also, it was felt that we should plan some friendlies next year and try to reestablish our ties with Plainfield.

Jan Conner suggested that we reinstitute Spot Curling, an excellent way to hone our skills. The markings will have to be put down before the ice is made in the fall.

Bonspiels: Kathey Mudge, no report.

Prizes: Carol Meszaros, prizes had already been covered.

Membership: Jean MacIntosh was unable to attend. The women will plan to have their own Open House the first week of curling, as well as the general open house on the weekend. Bobbie Patterson will see to the lunch.

Publicity: Jean Glus. Jinny Hill showed a copy of the "Irvington View Point" a monthly publication and gave Jean the name to contact; they have requested curling news. Jinny is not interested in using the Gannet papers.

USWCA: Marcella Hanlon announced that both she and Shirley would be attending the October and the winter meetings in Chicago this year. Marcella will put in for one air fair. fare each
Shirley

Skips Rep: Bobbie Patterson will hold a Skips meeting in the fall.

Rules: Marita Smith's report had been covered earlier in the meeting.

Scots Tour: Marcella Hanlon reported that Jo Owens still does not know how many curlers she will have spaces for in January.

USWCA Senior Bonspiel: Shirley Bruce has her committees lined up: The welcoming party will be Monday, March 11. Curling will be on March 12, 13 and 14, 1991

Bobbie Patterson will be in charge of the hors d'oeuvre for the welcoming party, the house party and the snacks in the warm room.

The site for the welcome party and the house party are undecided; one will be in the warm room.

Jean Macintosh will be in charge of breakfasts.

Nadja McKay will do the lunches.

Margaret Murdock will do the house or the welcome party.

Carol Meszaros will take care of the hotel arrangements.

Helene Kayser will be in charge of drivers and photos.

Kathy Mudge will do kits and gifts.

Jinny Hill is taking care of the theater party on Wednesday night (Chorus Line). She has reserved 90 seats; the deposit has been paid.

Jan Conner is our treasurer.

Marcella Hanlon is the on site rules Chairman.

Kim Freeman will do the publicity.

Traditionally all the USWCA Senior Bonspiels have a booklet which has included the draws, the personnel, all pertinent information about the event; information which we have usually provided in our kit on separate sheets but not in booklet form. Since the Bruces have access to obtaining cover paper and Archie has always been generous in donating his services and talents to us, they will take over this project.

Decorations- open

Promotion and Public Relation ^{Chairman} ~~Committee~~ - open

Shirley will be receiving some professional advice tonight about the USWCA theme ALIVE AND CURLING which she will be presenting in the October meeting to be used on all USWCA materials. She would like to carry this theme, colors, etc through in our decorations and promotions.

The host club for the Senior Bonspiel always orders extra participation pins to sell as a money maker. The board decided to order 25 extra pins, to sell at $3.00 each.

Ardwick Board Meeting
May 1, 1990

Mrs. Hill reported that the Curling Club Board will put up a book case in the warm room at the club where we can place paper backs to be sold at 50¢, as a money raiser. Also, they ok'd our running raffles at any of the club events to help add to our kitty to cover the expenses facing us for this Bonspiel. Marcella Hanlon still has packages of note paper (with the curling stone on it) to sell for $5.00 a package.

Gifts and Kits: Kathy Mudge

Suggestion for kits were shown.

Sturdy tote bags, with printed (by computer, or silk screened) logo shown by Shirley Bruce.

Crystal Apples - large size, $8.00, small $5.00. Shirley has a donation for one half the cost of the small size.

Jinny Hill had a curling motif salt & pepper shaker.

Kathy Mudge had a great variety of hand made and inexpensive gift items.

Jinny Hill had a needle pointed brush cover, done with rug yarn on plastic.

The board decided on the tote bags, one for each member of the team. We should have some workshops to make the gift items for sale, they would be great money raisers. Also, several members agreed to make the brush covers over the summer (Jinny will send them the directions, wool, wook can be bought at Franks). If we get more donations toward purchasing the Chrystal Apples, great!.

Ms. Robert D. Hill

Dear Ms. Hill:

Thank you for your recent order for three (3) of the New Curling Name pins for Ardwick's Ladies Curling Club. We look forward to the opportunity of being of further service.

However, due to the construction of the new Ardwick's Ladies Club emblem there is going to be a problem. The construction of your new emblem is highly pierced. This does not allow enough area to solder the emblem to the name pin.

We can only recommend that the No. 210 name pin be used. This will allow three small points for soldering.

I await your further direction in the above matter, we remain,

Yours very truly,
